The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes:

- Contact details;
- References;
- Evidence of qualifications;
- Employment details;
- Information about business and pecuniary interests.

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation;
- Carry out a task in the public interest.

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where you have provided us with consent to use your data. You may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with the Information Management Toolkit for Schools v5.

We maintain a file to store personal information about all volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the school.

When your relationship with the school has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with the Information Management Toolkit for Schools v5.

Data sharing

We share your personal data with the following:

- Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors/trustees (including statutory information required to be shared on the school websites;
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor/trustee support;
- Professional advisers and consultants;
- Police forces, courts.
